

RE - Why do Christians perform Nativity plays at Christmas?

Class Plym

Autumn 2 2022

What is the Christmas story?

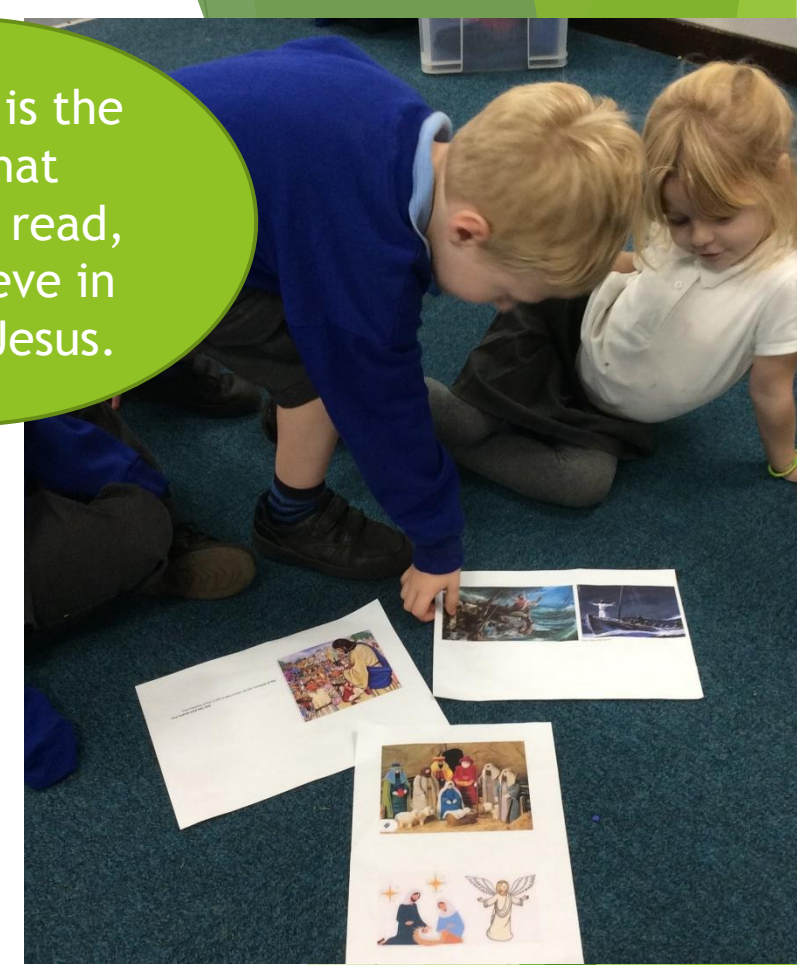

We listened to the Christmas story and found out that it is about the baby Jesus being born. Christians believe that this is God incarnated to be a human on earth.

What country does God live in and what language does he say hello and goodbye in?

The Bible is the book that Christians read, they believe in God and Jesus.

We get presents from Santa at Christmas.

How do Christians celebrate Christmas?

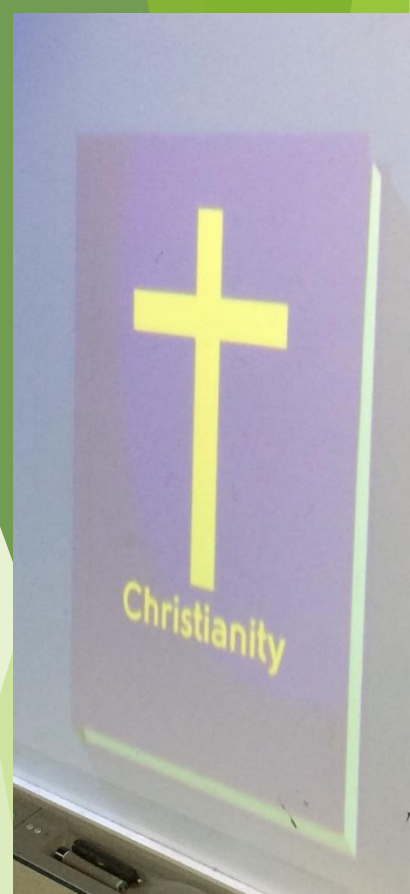

My granny is called Mary like Jesus' mum.

In my house we put presents under the Christmas tree and put up decorations.

Christmas is in December.

My grandad comes over at Christmas and we tidy up the house.

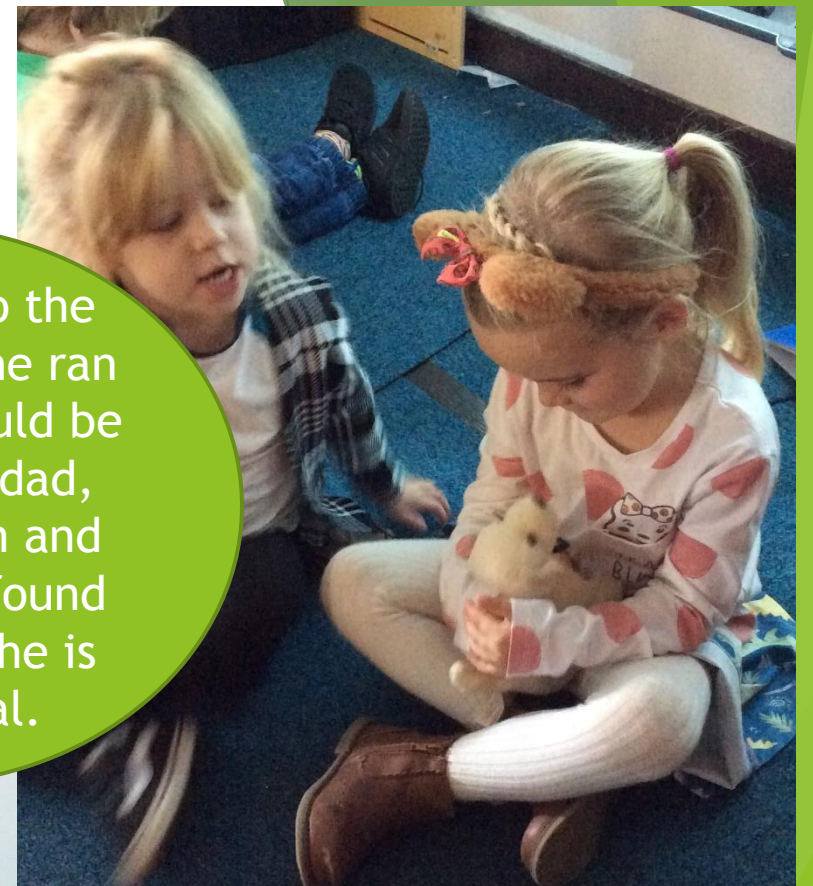

We talked about how Christians may go to Midnight Mass to sing carols and see Christmas day begin. We also had ago at acting out some of the Nativity story.

What makes every person unique and precious?

Jesus went to the church when he ran away so he could be near his real dad, God. His mum and dad came to find him because he is very special.

I lost my mummy in a shop once and she came to find me. I was very worried.

You are special because you are always kind and you always make everyone laugh.

Who came to visit the baby Jesus? The Three Wise Men.

The three wise men took gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

We are the Three kings that followed the star.

That's the big star we had to follow in our play!

The Shepherds came to visit the baby Jesus too.

Did the shepherds take any gifts for the baby Jesus?

Is this why we sing twinkie twinkie little star?

The angel told the shepherds to follow the star because someone special had been born
