What's the time?
Summer 1 2022

We learnt how to say and write a sentence to tell the time to o'clock and half past the hour.

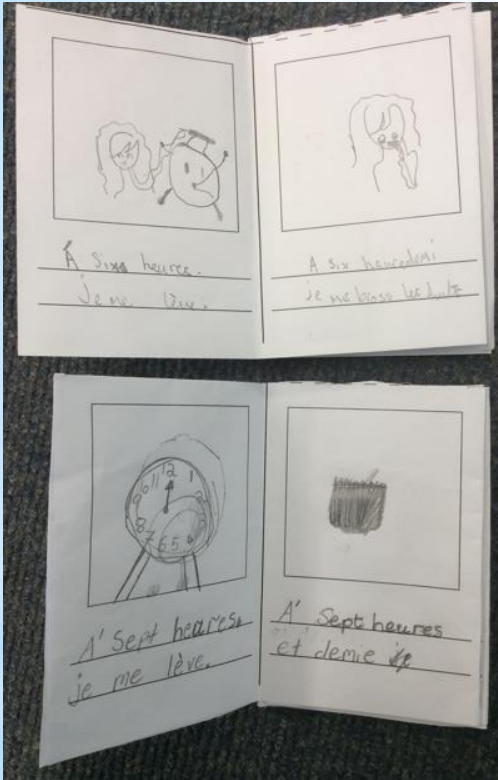

Il est deux heures

Il est deux heures et demie.

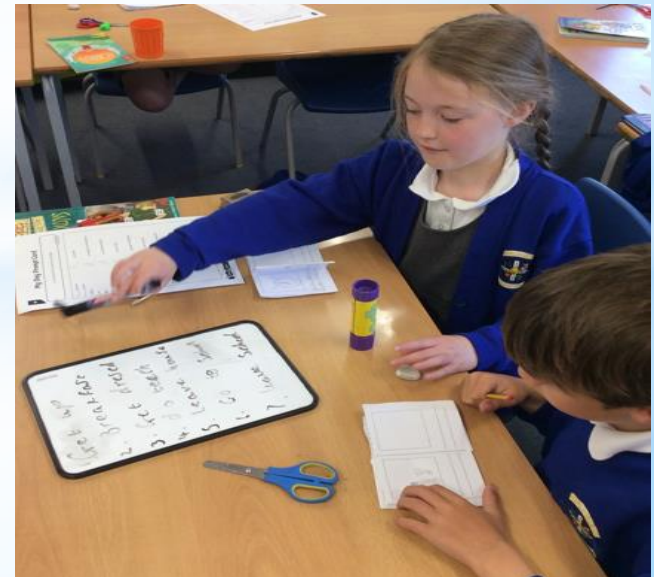

We learnt how to start a sentence using a time connective, stating at what time something happens. We then wrote whole sentences choosing from a list of simple sentences in order to create a book about 'my day' (Ma journée).

À sept heures, je me lève.

We learnt how to read a TV schedule to answer the question ‘Qu'est-ce qui passe à la télévision à....?’ (What's on the television at...?)

Qu'est-ce qui passe à la télévision à dix heures et demie ?

What's the time?

What I have learnt before:

Listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding.

I can tell the time (o'clock and half past).

Forever Facts

To ask the time in French, say quelle heure est-il? Or, if you want to be less formal, say il est quelle heure?

To give the time, say il est (it is) and then say the time.

In English we say half past before the hour (or number) however in French this comes after the hour (or number) eg:
il est trois heures et demie = It's half past three

I know the key words for this topic.
