

Science Year 1/2 Knowledge Organiser

How do seasons change?

Key knowledge

Know the main differences between the four seasons

- Know the names of the four seasons
- Know the type of weather normally associated with the four seasons
- Know that we have longest periods of light in summer and shortest periods of light in winter
- Know that different parts of the world have their summer and winter at different times to us
- Know that the temperature varies during the different seasons

What have I learnt before?

The names of the four seasons and what happens to a tree in autumn and spring.

Vocabulary

Autumn	The time of year between September and November. Many leaves fall off the trees
Winter	The coldest season in the UK. We often have snow in this season. It occurs between December and February
Spring	The time of year between March and May. There is usually lots of signs of new growth in Spring
Summer	The hottest season in the UK. It happens between June and August. The longest day is June 21 st temperature	It is measurement of hot or cold that can be calculated using a thermometer
weather symbol 	These are signs used to help us understand more about our daily weather

Skills:

- Observe and know about the changes in the seasons
- Name the seasons and know about the type of weather in each season

Personal Development:
Jobs: Environmental worker, scientist, weather person.

Endpoint: Information sheet about the four seasons.